If you have leadership, organizational, and communication skills, as well as the ability to provide exceptional customer service, join us to learn more about growing your career with Phoenix Children's Academy. We offer a competitive salary, a comprehensive benefits package, childcare discount and more!

PCA Culture: Being part of the team at Phoenix Children's Academy means you have a passion for better education. Our teachers, school directors, and corporate leadership team know that working with us is more than just a job. It's the love for being an integral force in a child's development and growth. It's the joy of developing friendships with the families who entrust us with their children. Most importantly, it's fun! We look for positively motivated, energetic team players who have a true desire to grow in early childhood education. Our success is based on collaboration and open communication, so we can come up with the best solution to care for the children in our classrooms. Our management team believes in nurturing talent and supporting their staff to learn and improve every step of the way.

Just like snowflakes, every day in our schools is uniquely different from the next. Children have needs that are constantly changing. In an educational environment, our staff needs to stay one step ahead. That's why our teachers are highly organized, engaging leaders who are extremely flexible and have a big capacity to show love and patience at the drop of a hat.

At Phoenix Children's Academy, we understand the vital importance of partnership within the organization. They keep the bar raised on quality care and education, while providing the compassionate support their team needs to make every day special. Phoenix Children's Academy welcomes teachers, care givers, and leaders who share our passion to cultivate a child's lifelong love of learning. Apply now to become a part of our growing team!
